The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

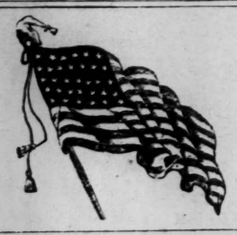
Friday, August 22d, 1873.



ONE of our greatest delights in the Masonic Institution is the entire absence of sectarianism. No matter what a Mason's political or religious opinions may be, nor how sensitive he may feel in relation to them, he will never hear anything within the body of the Lodge to wound his feelings. The great broad mantle of Charity is spread over all, and all topics calculated to wound the feelings of even the youngest Mason in the North East corner are carefully excluded.

In the great charitable work in which it is now engaged—the Orphan Asylum—which so nobly and justly appeals to every generous man in the State, no question of partizanship or religion has arisen within Masonic borders, but all, of whatever religious belief, whether Jew or Gentile, have bid the work God speed. On this one subject the press of the State shows entire unanimity, and very properly so, and the work has gone on, day by day, and month by month, furnishing homes for the houseless, clothing the naked, and feeding the hungry. It was left for an anonymous writer to the Piedmont Press to find the first fault, and the castigation he receives at the hands of the Press and other papers in the State is most really deserved. It is indeed surprising that any man, with even a slight knowledge of the facts in the case, could have even thought of such an absurd criticism, much less have written it. The article in the Press is so pertinent, that we publish it entire. We will state for the benefit of our readers that there are two Baptists, one Methodist, and one Episcopalian among its managers, and that sectarian religion is not taught. Masonry requires a belief in God, but asks no other religious question of its candidates and desires to teach no other. We believe that Mr. Mills is not an ordained minister, though a believer in the Baptist faith.

The Press says:

A correspondent who does not give his name—probably ashamed to give it—has favored us with the subjoined communication:

"Dear Press: I notice a good deal has been said through the Press, both editorially and through correspondents, about the Orphan Asylum located at Oxford, N. C. I am not opposed to charitable institutions, but I am opposed to such institutions being made the nursery of any particular church. And it seems to me this important fact has been overlooked in what has been said about the Orphan Asylum at Oxford.—The religious training of the children is left exclusively to and under the sole management of the Episcopalians.

"And thus every waif that finds its way to this Asylum will be launched into the world a full-fledged Episcopalian." * * * * * *

Our correspondent, who seems to possess some intelligence, an amazing amount of ignorance, and who is certainly an illiberal, narrow-minded, and short-sighted sectarian, continues in this strain, affording us an opportunity for timely comment.

The institution, we understand, is entirely free from sectarian or denominational influence. The Superintendent, Mr. Mills, is a minister of the Baptist Church, and until recently Editor of the Biblical Recorder, the organ of the Baptist Church in North Carolina. The attaches who fill the various departments have been selected especially and solely with reference to their fitness and capability, representing all or nearly all of the churches in the State. Even if it be true, as our correspondent states, that the religious "training of the children" is confided to the Episcopalians, we can see no sense in the objection.

The world is wide and the members of all religious denominations, if they should devote all their spare time and energy to the work, cannot do too much for the relief of the unfortunate and miserable. Let the Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, Lutherans, Catholics and Jews, and conscientious men and women of every creed, do their utmost to clothe the naked, feed the hungry, educate the ignorant, give work to the unemployed, teach morality to the vicious and religion to the unbelievers, and there will still remain a shocking residue of misery, ignorance, vice and wickedness.

Why should any class of religious people object to the benevolent labors of any other class? Is it not better, a thousand times better, in the view even of the most rigorous sectarian, that a number of unfortunate street children, fatherless, motherless, friendless, without shelter and almost without God in the world, should be taken in, cared for and instructed, whether by Episcopalians or Presbyterians, than that they should go wild and grow up to vice and crime?

THE MURDER INVESTIGATION

SIXTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Case Closed.

DECISION OF THE COURT.

Court was calied this morning at 9 o'clock, in order to finish the labor today. All the defendants were present, including Duke Walker, arrested at Laurinburg, 'Squire Cassidey, Coroner Hewlett, Mr. A. Empie, and Mr. J. L. Holmes, Mr. G. L. Mabson appeared and notified the Court that he appeared for Duke Walker.

DAVID MARTIN recalled—I stated last Wednesday that Duke Walker was at the murder. I don't know anything about Duke. Jimmie said he was there. I didn't see him there.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Jimmie told me Duke was there, and so I said he was there. I didn't see him there. I said that Duke cut the arm off with a hatchet, but I didn't see him. I told a lie day before yesterday. I didn't see him cut off the arm with a hatchet.

FOR DEFENSE—[for Duke Walker.]

SIDNEY BROWN sworn—A week ago last Monday I was at work on the Charlotte Railroad, and on that day Duke Walker was seven miles from Wadesboro', toting water to the hands. I know Duke. He is in the prisoner's box. I know the boy was there Monday, for I know when he left Wilmington. He left Wilmington on the 4th of August, which was Monday. He got to work Tuesday morning. I remember the time when Capt. Ellis gave the hands a pass to go up the Road, and he was with them.

JOHN R. LEWIS sworn—I live in Wilmington. I was up the road working for Mr. Joe Ellis a week ago last Monday. I was 138 miles from here. Know Duke Walker. He was there on that day toting water with me.

[The Court then discharged Duke Walker, no eyidence appearing againct him.]

DUKE WALKER sworn—I knew Willie Carter; know Dave Martin, Billy, Jimmie and Elijah. I know Mrs. Carter when I see her. I aint agoing to tell anything but the truth. I heard David say that Mrs. Carter had offered $10 to him or anybody who would drown Willie Carter. There were as many as fifty boys there. We were all at the Union depot playing ball, &c. Willie came up about dark, and Dave said that Mrs. Carter had offered him or any other boy $10 to drown him, and Elijah said she did say so. Willie cried and went home.

CROSS-EXAMINED.

Willie didn't say anything. Dave said so. Said Mrs. Carter said she would give $10 to drown Willie. A heap of boys heard it. Sometimes I played with David. I played with Elijah more than I did with David. Dave said she'd give him $10, or any other boy, to drown him. Willie had just come when he said it. He talked it out loud so we all could hear. It was about three weeks before I went up the road, and I have been up the road about three weeks. Lang Sellars talked with me coming down the road. He said if I didn't tell him the straight truth about it, he would throw me in the river and drown me. He asked me if I didn't cut the arm off, and that all the boys said I was there, and that if I didn't say I did, he would drown me in the river. He asked me where that $20 was I took from Willie's pocket. He said he knowed I had it, or I couldn't ride on the cars. He frightened me, and I have told all I told him. He said that they had all sworn that I cut off Willie's arm and broke it with a stick, and that if I didn't tell, he would throw me in the river and drown me. He asked me if I knew anything about Willie Carter, and I told him that Dave had told me that Mrs. Carter had offered $10 to drown him. This was before he had threatened me.

Lucinda Cherry sworn—I saw Charlotte Hooper at Mr. Dawson's corner at about 4 o'clock on that Monday with Billy Merrick. It was a little after 4 o'clock.

CROSS EXAMINED.

We passed on that corner. Drays were passing. I didn't see any one else. I saw a dray. I don't know who drove it. Didn't notice anybody else. I didn't notice any one before I met The Odd Fellows paraded that day and most of the people were up to the Church. I am certain that this was the time.

Eliza Jones sworn—I cook at Mr. Mebane's. I was there on that Monday, about 4 o'clock Charlotte came to the house and the boy was with her. I asked him what his name was and he said William Henry and I said oh yes, I remember you. His mother had gone up stairs and I gave him a little cup of soup.

Lizzie Caldwell sworn—I know Charlotte Hooper. I was at Mrs. Bowles' there on that Monday. She came to the house with little Billy Merrick at 2 o'clock and stayed there until 3. They eat dinner at 2 o'clock and they were eating when they came. I know the boy, and that's him sitting in the box.

George Washington, sworn—I know Billy Merrick and Charlotte Hooper by sight. I saw them last Monday week at Dr. Anderson's about 5 o'clock.

Albert Jones sworn—I know Charlotte Hooper and her son Billy. I stay at Mr. Mebane's. He was there that Monday as my mother said.

Phœbe ——, sworn—I know Charlotte Hooper and her son Billy. I saw them at Dr. Anderson's last Monday week after 5 o'clock.

BY CORONER JURY.

Jane Merrick, sworn—I knew Willie Carter; he was out a great deal in the street in front of my house. They used to fight and quarrel often. Dave and Willie were always quarrelling; he was always knocking the little fellows, and used to knock Willie. Mr Carter was very kind to his child, and I never knew of Mrs. Carter's whipping him but once and you know children will get reckless. Willie told me she whipped him for spitting in her face, and that's the only time I ever knew of her whipping him. I don't know Elijah. Dave was the largest boy in the crowd quarrelling or fighting.

CROSS-EXAMINED.

I lived next door to Carter's. Never saw any bruises on Willie, he always looked well cared for.

BY THE COURT.

Jimmie Anderson re-called—I recollect the day the Odd Fellows had their procession. I was at Geo. Statchers. I recollect the time Willie Carter was drowned. The Odd Fellows turned out after Willie was murdered. It was after he was killed.

David Martin re-called—I saw the Odd Fellows that day. I was at the City Hall when they passed. Willie had just been murdered.

CROSS-EXAMINED.

I stated that I went to my mothers and to Mrs. Carter's, and I did go down to the City Hall. I sold that black handled knife to Mr. Scott, and Elijah had the broken handled one.—Neither of these did the cutting. It was a cork-screw knife that Jimmie had which they used to do the cutting. I have never seen that knife since.—Jimmie sharpened the knife on the iron himself. Mr. Scott never sent me to any woman after that knife. I bought the knife black handled knife of Elijah, and sold it to Mr. Scott. I did'nt go after that knife on Monday morning.

THE COURT THEN SAID:

From the admissions of David Martin and Jimmie Anderson themselves, and from the evidence adduced, the Court is inclined to believe that Elizabeth Carter, William H. Merrick and Elijah Martin are implicated in this murder, and the Court doth therefore bind over the defendants, Elizabeth Carter, Elijah Martin, David Martin, Jimmie Anderson and William H. Merrick, to the next term of the Superior Court.

The art committee of the Cincinnati Industrial Exposition reported to the Commissioners that owing to the recent arrivals of works of art and the unexpected application for space in the art hall, the enlargement of that building would be necessary. The committee was empowered to confer with the Park Commissioners for permission to enlarge the art hall in Washington Park.

A desperate fight occurred on College street, at Nashville, Tenn., between the city police force and eight countrymen, whom they had arrested for creating a disturbance. Officer Plummer was shot in the right shoulder, and officer Reed stabbed in the forehead. A colored man named Charles Allon was stabbed twice in the throat and head, and had his hands badly cut. It is thought his wounds will prove fatal.

—The United Canadian Societies held their annual gathering at Rock Bay, near Hamilton, Aug 20, at which the Duke of Manchester and his son, Lord Mandeville, who are on a visit to Canada, were present. In the course of his speech the Duke said he had been desirous of seeing, and hoped yet to see, Canada, as well as other colonies have representatives in the Imperial ministry who would be able to advise on all matters in which the interests of the Dominion and all the colonies were con-

He administers them in the form of snuff, mixed in the proportions of 50 centigrammes of citrate of quinine to one grain of tobacco, well fermented and irritant. The medicine is thus made to act almost directly on the diseased nerve in a manner analogous to the hypodermic method.

NO MAYOR'S court this morning.

OUR market is bountifully supplied with all kinds of fruit.

A dying mule on Front street attracted attention this morning. He is said to have had lock-jaw.

THE attention of the health officers is called to the lot or lots on Market, between Second and Third streets.

BEVERLY SCOTT will hang up his coat and pursue the avocation of brick making at the workhouse for one month.

THRONGS gather around the Court House as the Carter murder is being investigated. We would suggest to the police to keep the sidewalk clear.

Two casks of spirits turpentine were found this morning on Messrs. Williams & Murchison's wharf among some empty barrels. No one knows how they got there, or who they belong to.

Ladies are already discussing the all important topic of what they shall wear the coming fall, and the dry goods merchants are anxious to assist them in their deliberations.

NOTICE.—Several hogs and pigs have broken into my field during the past two months. This is to notify their owners to call and prove property, pay damages and take them away.

aug21-3 H. E. SCOTT.

It is with pride for American inventive genius that we notice the dispatches from the World's Exhibition at Vienna announcing the success of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. *

JAMES H. CARAWAY being unable to attend court the case was continued until to-morrow. We learn that his injures are more severe than was at first supposed, and that on yesterday small pieces of bone worked out of the wound.

IN HASTE.—Our neighbor of the Star gave a severe criticism on Wm. H. Moore one of our new Magistrates yesterday, but made the amende this morning. We know nothing of the merits of the case, but would suggest to our brother local not to be in so great a hurry to condemn.

RALEIGH is a pleasant little city and is noted for being the Capital of North Carolina and the place where the State Fair is to be held. Among the many publications there is a handsomely printed nine column weekly called the Era. Now the editor of that paper has great perceptive genius, and is so appreciative that he admires the "Saturday Night Sketches" so familiar to our readers. But his remarks would convince any one that he is an upland dweller and is not at all familiar with the scenes depicted in the "Sketches," Thus he confounds a genuine, rollicking son of Neptune, with his quid of tobacco and rolling gait, with "Jim Bludsoe," who was an engineer on the Mississippi river! And then the editor of the Era criticises the construction of one of our hurried sentences! Does he not know the haste in which the proofs of a daily paper are read? And cannot he have any consideration for our tears and the fate of "poor Jack," which blinded us so we couldn't read correctly? Also, brother Era, where is thy charity? Will you give that conundrum up also?

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Warm.

— Gold is 115⅛.

— Buildings going up rapidly.

— The yacht furore is on the increase.

— Lots of fat mullets in market this morning.

— The Great Eastern circus now heads this way. Good news for the boys.

— Commodore F. A. L. Cassidey, of the Carolina Yacht Club, is ill with bilious fever.

— A young friend of W. C. C. C greets his twentieth birthday to-day. Take a horn?

— The urbane Nash, landlord of the hotel on Princess street near Fourth, has many boarders.

ON BOARD THE LUCY VICK.—A large number of invited guests were on board this new barquentine this morning in response to the invitation of Messrs. Vick & Mebane, noticed in yesterday's POST. The Lucy Vick is a handsome vessel, painted black, and was in full dress, being almost covered with flags and signals, with a large blue silk flag at her mast-head, bearing the name of Lucy Vick in gold letters. She floats the British ensign, and Captain Proctor, the officer in command, and most of the crew, are English.

Among the guests present, we noticed Col. W. L. DeRosset, President of the Chamber of Commerce, with a delegation from that body, Mr. C. H. Robinson, Vice-President of the Produce Exchange, with members from that organization, Gen. Robert Ransom, Col. A. M. Waddell, R. E. Heide, Esq., Danish Vice Consul, D. Rumley, Esq., Collector of the Port, and Custom House officers, Mayor W. P. Canaday and City Aldermen, Col. S. L. Fremont of the N, C. Central road, and other railroad officers, members of the city press, Col. J. W. Atkinson, C. D. Myers, Esq., and many others.

The guests were called to order by Mr. F. W. Kerchner, who stated that he had been requested to preside in the absence of Mr. S. W. Vick, and welcomed the guests in a pleasant little speech. An immense bowl of magnificent punch had been prepared, and when the glasses were all charged, the Lucy Vick was toasted and drank with full honors. Miss Lucy Vick, a sweet little maiden about ten years old, was introduced and appropriately honored. She was dressed in white, with sailor waist, trimmed with blue, and is a handsome little black-eyed sprite, who bore her honors gently and with singular self-possession.

The next toast was,

"The barquentine Lucy Vick, another link in the foreign commerce of Wilmington, fostered by the national government, she will be followed by many others."

Drank "unanimously" by the party.

The third toast was,

"The internal improvements of North Carolina." Col. Fremont responded briefly and offered the following volunteer toast:

"Capt. Proctor, may he carry many bales of cotton, shipped from Charlotte to Liverpool."

Full attention was paid to this toast by the entire party, but Capt. Proctor claimed that he was more of a sailor than a talker, and declined to make a speech. By this time the champagne corks were flying in every direction, and the iced punch was forgotten, save by a few who were seated near it, who couldn't desert old friends for new.

The Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Wilmington were then toasted, but the Mayor, laboring under a severe cold, called upon Alderman Moore to respond, who made a few pleasant remarks.

Messrs. Vick & Mebane were then toasted with full honors and many cheers. After which Col. Atkinson offered The Press of the City of Wilmington. Responded to, very briefly, by Major Mann, of the POST.

R. E. Heide, Danish Vice-Consul, made a few remarks in response to a call from the guests, and volunteer speeches being in order, many were called for and made.

A charming speech was made by Gen. Robert Ransom, after which Col. W. L. DeRosset said that the Chamber of Commerce, the merchants and citizens of Wilmington, could not but bear testimony that the present incumbent of the postoffice, Col. Brink, had performed his duties to the entire satisfaction of all persons. They endorsed him to the fullest extent and hoped that he would be retained in his present position.—That the entire commercial interests of the city were under obligations to him for the efficient, courteous and satisfactory manner in which he had performed his duties. Amid the cheers of the assembly Col. Brink was raised to the upper deck and responded in a happy manner. Many other specches were made, and the occasion will long be remembered by the participants.

STATE ITEMS.

The colored citizens of Raleigh have organized a military company to be called the Oak City Greys.

Raleigh aspires to the celebrity of being called a first-class cotton market, and has built a cotton warehouse of vast dimensions expressly for the cotton trade.

Gen. Rufus Barringer, of Charlotte, has been called to the bedside of his brother, Hon. D. M. Barrlnger, who is very ill at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, Va.

The fourth week of the Special Term for Mecklenburg expired on Saturday last. There are about one hundred and fifty cases still on the docket to be tried, and the Court will continue one or two weeks longer.

The Charlotte Democrat says: The Supreme Court having granted a new trial to Charles Moore, colored, who killed Smith, colored, he (Moore) submitted to a verdict of manslaughter and was sentenced to the Pentrentiary for five years, and his wife, as accessory, to two years.

From the Charlotte Democrat we learn: In the two cases against the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, for damages for not shipping cotton at as low rates as was alleged was agreed upon by contract during the presidency of Col. William Johnston, the Court gave judgment against the railroad for $11,000.

Mr. William Harriss, of Person county, became engaged in a difficulty some two or three weeks ago with a colored man named Peter —— and shot him, as he says, in self-defense. The man Peter is dead and Harriss, having been put in jail on a charge of murder, sued out a habeas corpus before Judge Read, who released him on a $2,500 bond.

For the Post.

The Machinists' and Blacksmiths' Union Excursion.

MR. EDITOR: Although the excursionists were somewhat disappointed regarding the time of departure on Thursday, yet the Waccamaw reached the wharf about 10 o'clock, and started on her return trip between 10½ and 11 o'clock.

The steamer's non-arrival at a sooner hour was altogether unavoidable, and not the least blame can be attached to her agent or officers, who are indeed a very efficient set, as many of our people well know.

As soon as the steamer left her wharf, the excellent music which had been secured for the occasion struck up, and discoursed sweet strains, which were wafted far out over the water. The floor managers placed the deck in dancing order, sets were formed, and soon "lads and lassies were tripping to the light fantastic toe," for the time being the trials and vicissitudes of life being forgotten. The dancing was participated in until we arrived at Smithville about 2 o'clock, where a short stay was made, after which we steamed for the Blackfish Grounds, conveying quite a goodly number; the majority, however, preferred remaining at the Academy, where the dancing was continued until the steamer returned to Smithville about 7 o'clock.

Reaching the fishing grounds the tackle was unwound and fishing began in good earnest; but, alas! for some, that ever dreaded sea-sickness made its appearance, causing the lucky or unlucky victims, as the case may be, to relinquish fishing and take a short trip to "Europe." Only a few fish were caught, as they did not bite so plentifully as on former occasions. Lines were hauled in and we started for Smithville, where after receiving all hands, re-embarked and our homeward journey began. Now an unlooked for pleasure awaited us, to-wit: A moonlight excursion, minus the moon, lanterns being substituted. Dancing was again indulged in and continued for some time, when the ladies becoming exhausted by general acclamation it was dispensed with, and soon couples were observed promenading the deck, while others sought comfortable seats near the railings were wrapped in the folds of cupid, while reciting love, romances and daring deeds of great heroes and charming heroines.

Reaching the city about 1½ o'clock some 200 weary souls were safely landed who sought their respective homes, there to rest from the fatigues caused by the day's festivities.

Refreshments were furnished by Mr. Thorburn, and were all that could be desired.

Altogether this was one of the most pleasant excursions of the season, and the gentlemen comprising the committee of arrangements have the heartfelt thanks of all the participants for the orderly manner in which the day's proceedings were conducted. It is the expressed wish of many that the Union could be prevailed upon to have a repetition before the close of the season.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT, General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. SINN,
BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
